Musical Alphabet Worksheet 3

Enharmonic Workout

This Worksheet will test your knowledge of the musical alphabet: the building blocks of music.

Write the alternate names for these notes using flats (♭), sharps (♯), and naturals (♮).

1. E♭
2. G♯
3. A♯
4. C♭
5. F♯
6. B♭
7. B♯
8. E♯
9. D♭
10. C♯
11. F♯
12. D♯
13. G♭
14. A♭

BONUS QUESTIONS!

Use only double-sharps (𝄪), double-flats (𝄫), and naturals (♮) to write an alternate name for these. (There may be more than one correct answer.)

1. C♮
2. B♭
3. E♭
4. A♯
5. E𝄫
Musical Alphabet Worksheet 3

Answers:

1. D #
2. A b
3. B b
4. B
5. G b
6. A #
7. C
8. F
9. C #
10. D b
11. E
12. E b
13. F #
14. G #

BONUS ANSWERS

1. D ♯
2. C ♯
3. F ♯
4. G ♮ or B ♯
5. D ♫

Double-flats and double-sharps do exist. A lot of music theory beginners think that they are mistakes. Those same people also usually think that B ♯, E ♯, C b, and F b are mistakes. All of these notes DO exist. We just don’t see them as often as the other notes, so they seem strange or “wrong”.

www.MusicTheoryForMusicians.com
© Copyright John Boulware 2010